⚙️ Roberto Serrini

Roberto is one of the main forces behind PF and tries to have his hand in every aspect of the groups productions. His talents stretch way beyond the scope of directing as he is the groups main editor, writer, actor and even the web site designer. Roberto's protean nature is simple: whatever he doesn't know he learns to be able to get the job done right. He has worn many hats since finishing school; having been a hotel manager, translator, a ski instructor, art director, stand-up comedian, and a go-go dancer. Sometimes all in the same week. Roberto doesn't so much sleep as he dreams reality with his eyes open.

⚙️ Michelle Vergara

Michelle has a electric persona that seems dim compared to her vibrant imagination.

⚙️ Tom Taddeo

Tom has a fervor and style of filmmaking that demands attention. Always one for making anything a reality, he motivates the crew with his fast thinking and aggressive approach to overcoming obstacles.
